

BILLAUTOPSY.

DON'T PAY IT. AUTOPSY IT.

The itemized hospital bill is a crime scene: the same CT scan on line 14 and line 22, an $87 foam sling, charges coded because they're betting you won't check. BillAutopsy reads every line, flags duplicates, unbundled charges, and prices far above typical rates — then drafts the dispute letter, cited by line number.

WHO IT'S FOR

US patients holding a large, confusing hospital bill they suspect is wrong — which, at these totals, is worth confirming before paying a cent.

THE ANGLE

Weaponize the itemized bill. You're entitled to it, the errors live in it, and a proper line-cited dispute can move a bill by hundreds or thousands. Pay quietly and the errors get paid too.

HOW IT WORKS

01GET THE ITEMIZED BILL

One call to billing — you're entitled to it. The summary bill hides the evidence.

02RUN THE AUTOPSY

Every line checked: duplicates, upcodes, unbundling, prices far above typical rates.

03SEND THE DISPUTE

A formal letter quoting every flagged charge by line number, ready for billing.
